

SUMITHRA M

Incretated competion	Economic growth	Worldwide awareness
Containarisation	Increased transport of goods	Increased choice
Family structure	Standardization of time and space	Erosion of local cultures

SOWMIYA P

Imbalnaced trade	Increased global cooperation	Communication
technological change	Economic specialization	Higher quality products
Marriage values	Economic growth	widening of inequalities

NISHA K

Domestic job loss	Increased cross border investment	Economy
Economies of scale	Decreased biodiversity	Economies of scale
Social values	Broadening the human perspective	Clash of civilizations

THABASUM SULTHANA S

structural unemployment	It hleps to increase the demand of products	Politics
Less protectionism	Increased awareness	Increased capital flow
Adultery	Increased human capital	Ecological impact

MALATHI R

Environmental concerns	Consumers profit of globalisation	common behavior
Differences in tax system	Habitat destruction	Increased labor mobility
Food, clothing	Higher population densities more efficient	Increased pressures on natural environment

Person 6

Person 7

Person 8
